

McLEOD & ELVIS FURNITURE

The McLeod & Elvis building was a wooden structure and housed a furniture business as well as an undertaking business. It was eventually torn down and replaced by a brick building. This became the Union Bank and eventually the Royal Bank. When the Royal Bank built their new building and moved, the space was used by numerous businesses. Today, we are lucky to have Tak Lee Cafe occupying this building and serving Souris and area, delicious Chinese food.

